Political Campaign Started.

March 13, 1856.—The campaign preceding the April election was opened Monday evening at Breed hall by a lage and enthusiastic meeting of Union men of Norwich and a meeting of the old sort, full of the earnestness which gives promise of success. The body of the hall was crowded to its utmost capacity with ladies for whom utmost capacity with ladies for whom the seats had been reserved. The Norwich Brass band escorted the speakers to the hall, and furnished expeakers to the hall, and furnished expenses to the hall and furnished expense speakers to the hall, and furnished excellent music at intervals during the evening.

John Chase, whose arrest for stealing the coat of Mr. Beckwith noted in Monday's Bulletin, was taken to Montville for trial, the theft having been committed in the limits of that town. Park Church Ladies Hear Letters of Appreciation from Western Mission-

A meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of Park church was held in the parlors of the Osgood Me-morial on Priday afternoon and was conducted by the president, Mrs. George D. Coit. Interesting reports were given by the secretary, Miss Adelaide L. Butts, and the treasurer, Miss Louise B. Meech. They also read appreciative letters from missionaries in Nebraska and Colorado to whom boxes have recently been sent, and a letter of thanks for clothing sent to the Home Missionary rooms in Hartford. Other articles of clothing and several layettes have been prepared to send to the office in New York, and a box will be sent soon to the school at Pleasant Hill, Tenn., where the Norwich churches are sup-porting a teacher for the southern mountaineer work. A package of cards already sent there was gratefully ac-knowledged.

Mrs. Coit then gave an interesting account of the recent home missionary meeting which was held in New Haven and which marked the 30th anniversary of the state society.
